VII. ADJOURNMENT

*Public Comment: is for bringing matters of public interest to the attention of the Commission. The Commission welcomes concise comments on matters that are within the purview of the County Commissioners. Comments on any matter that appears on the regular agenda are best reserved until the Chair calls that agenda item. Except in emergencies, the Commission will not normally take immediate action on public comment. At the Commission's discretion, matters may be placed on a future agenda, allowing all viewpoints to be represented before the Commission takes action; or, comments may be referred to County Administration.

Public Participation: The Commission welcomes valuable input from the public at appropriate times during the meeting, at the discretion of the Chair. The Chair will introduce each agenda item, and take public input (information please, not argument). Individual Commissioners may have questions on the clarity of information presented. The Commission will hear any staff input and then deliberate (please, no interruptions during Commission deliberation) on a course of action.
